Wondering why bid proposals are coming in so high?

Jim Cameron (Cameron-Reilly Concrete) and Al Hughbanks (Inland Asphalt) will be joining us for a discussion on the current construction climate, followed with an "Ask a Local Contractor" Q & A session. Please plan to join us, and come prepared with any questions related to bidding, design, and construction management.

Jim Cameron started a concrete business in 1982 with a pickup truck and a wheelbarrow purchased on a Montgomery Ward's credit card. Starting with driveways, by the end of the 80's his company was working large subdivisions and even built rollercoaster piers, log flumes, and ride foundations for Silverwood Theme Park. Jim's company continued to grow throughout the 90's, and in 2003 he merged with Mike Reilly to form Cameron-Reilly. Today, Cameron-Reilly's services include a wide range of public works construction services including demolition, drainage systems, traffic control, and earthwork and hauling.

Al Hughbanks has been a local construction fixture for more years than he cares to count. He is currently a Construction Manager and Chief Estimator for Inland Asphalt, and has been involved in countless local high profile construction projects.

Other things to keep in mind....

Thanks to those who participated in the TechEd seminar, more to come!

We will not be having a section meeting in June or July.

Bob Turner could still use some help with coordinating the Grand Coulee Dam Tour in August/September, contact Bob at bturner@spokanecity.org

Want to be more active with your local ASCE?

Our Board elections will be coming up in August, and the following positions will be open:

Vice President
Secretary
Treasurer
Director

We could also use a webmaster, which in the past has been taken up by a Board member.

Being a Board Member is a fairly minor time investment, and can lead to great connections and opportunities. Please consider running for a position!

Two ways to pay by card:

 In advance or

 Square at the door.

And cash/check at the door is still accepted!
